

Assoc. prof. dr. JARIENE Kristina

Associate Professor at Lithuanian University of Health Sciences, Obstetrician Gynecologist at Hospital of Lithuanian University of Health Sciences Kauno Klinikos. In 2012 she defended dissertation „Associations between high risk human papillomavirus infection and cervical cytological and histological changes“.

Almost 24 years of clinical practice in gynaecological endocrinology, infertility, reproductive medicine, adolescent gynaecology, cervical cancer screening, perinatal care. Ob/gyn consultant in adolescent rare diseases.

Recent activities:

- Scientific Editor of the Journal “Lithuanian Obstetric and Gynecology”
- Chair of cervical pathology and Colposcopy Section next to Lithuanian Ob/Gyn Association
- Member of the Lithuanian Ob/Gyn Association County Board
- Member of European Federation of Colposcopy (EFC) County Board
- Head of postgraduate course “Clinical management in sexual assault victims” in LT. Team leader in creating Sexual violence testing methodology of female victims in LT. A member of EU expert Group in creating protocols for sexually abused and exploited people in EU countries (PAYOKE Project).
- Lecturer in postgraduate Basic Colposcopy courses in LT (EFC Approved)
- Lecturer in postgraduate Advanced Perinatal Care courses in LT
- Expert in the ongoing project “Increasing the efficiency of screening programs for oncological diseases in the regions of Central and Western Lithuania”. Used to be a member of EU expert Group in Improvement of Quality of the National Cervical Cancer Screening Programmes Implementation in Croatia.
- Mentor for medical students, ob/gyn residents, nurses.
- Former Vice Chair of Adolescent Gynaecology Section next to Lithuanian Ob/Gyn Association