

KESMINAS Rolandas

Rolandas Kesminas is an highly experienced physiotherapist with expertise in orthopaedic and sports physiotherapy. He graduated with a bachelor in Physiotherapy 2002 and Master in Rehabilitation 2004 from Lithuanian Sports University. He studied in Catholic University of Leuven (Belgium) and Marquette University (USA). He is Fulbright fellow and executive member of Lithuanian Physiotherapy Association. He is sharing his knowledge teaching in the Lithuanian Sports University in physiotherapy program, supervising students in clinical practice and teaching weekend continuing education courses for physiotherapists and other rehabilitations professionals. Rolandas have a keen interest in combining manual therapy exercise, neurodynamics in a creative manner.